(c) The Board of Directors may budget and use Association funds to purchase awards, certificates, a celebratory meal, or other customary tokens or of appreciation for volunteer activities.

If a contract or transaction is fair to the Association, it is not disallowed merely because an officer, director, or member of the Association has a financial interest in the transaction, provided (1) the "interested" officer, director, or member fully and accurately discloses the nature of his or her interest to the board in a manner that is timely for the board's consideration of the contract or transaction, and (2) the "interested" officer or director does not participate in the vote to approve the contract or transaction, although the "interested" director may be counted toward a quorum at the meeting.

ARTICLE X COMMITTEES

The Association shall appoint a Nominating Committee, as provided in these By-laws. In addition, the Board of Directors shall appoint an Architectural Committee and other committees as deemed appropriate in carrying out its purpose.

ARTICLE XII ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. As more fully provided in the Declaration, each member is obligated to pay to the Association annual and special assessments, which are secured by a continuing lien upon the property against which the assessment is made. Any assessments not paid when due shall be delinquent. If the assessment is not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date, the assessment shall bear interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of eighteen per cent (18%) per annum, and the Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the property, and interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees of any such action shall be added to the amount of such assessment. No Owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by nonuse of the Common Area or abandonment of his or her Lot.

Section 2. Any Owner of more than one contiguous Lot is obligated only to pay the Association annual or special assessments as if the Owner owned one Lot. In the event Owner sells a contiguous Lot, the Owner shall at closing pay to the Association all past due annual and special assessments in full for that contiguous Lot. The assessments for the contiguous Lot will not be considered delinquent and interest, fees, and costs will be waived if the amount due is paid at closing or within thirty (30) days after the closing date. An Owner is entitled to one vote per Lot.

ARTICLE XIII

The Association will have a seal in circular form having within its circumference the words: "Kings Point Property Owners Association, Inc."

Section 1. An officer or director is not liable to the Association, its members, or another person for an action taken or not taken as an officer or director if he or she discharged their duties in good faith, with ordinary care, and in a manner the officer or director reasonably believes to be in the best interest of the Association. A person seeking to establish liability of an officer or director must prove that the officer or director did not act (1) in good faith, (2) with ordinary care, and (3) in a manner the officer or director reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Association.

Section 2. ARTICLE XV AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Although the general authority for amending the By-laws resides with the members of the Association, certain amendments may be made by the Board of Directors without a vote of the members. For the following limited purposes, the Board of Directors may amend these By-laws with or without approval by the members, provided the proposed amendment has the prior unanimous approval of the directors: (1) to correct mistakes in the By-laws and (2) to conform the By-laws to changes in controlling law applicable to any topic addressed in these By-laws. The Board of Director shall notify the members should the By-laws be amended without prior approval of the members

In all other instances, these By-laws may be amended, at a regular or special meeting of the members, by a vote of a majority of a quorum of members present in person or by proxy.
